

Peter Mackechnie

Peter is a dynamic business coach with over 8 years managing his own company and over 20 years senior and middle leadership and management experience, all of which delivered extensive change results for his clients.

His background ranges from managing large cultural and organisational change projects to working with major companies such as the Royal Bank of Scotland, Highlands and Islands, Sytner Car Group and Scottish Water, as well as a variety of SME companies across the UK.

In addition to his excellent Executive and Business Coaching skills he has specialist experience in Leadership and Management Programmes, communications, strategic and business planning and people development systems.

Coaching has been the primary Leadership and Management style Peter has used throughout his extensive career to date, and he is passionate about the outcomes that his clients experience when working with him. His direct, and hands on, approach ensures his clients are challenged whilst his sense of humour ensures lots of enjoyment along the way.

Qualifications and interests: Peter trained as a Coach with the Coaching and Mentoring Institute, College of Executive Coaching and Mindstore, Scotland. He's a trained behavioural profiler, Belbin Team role analyst, Neuro Linguistic Programming Practitioner and Leadership styles assessor. Academically he has an Honours degree in Psychology and two Business Diplomas in Strategic Management. He is a Member of the Chartered Management Institute and the Association for Coaching. He is also a mentor for Business Mentoring Scotland and the West Lothian Chamber of Commerce mentoring scheme. He is a Business Owner and avid traveller.

What Peter's clients say...

"Our work with Pete has directly increased our profits this year and our investment in coaching has been the best one we have made in our business career to date." Ruth MacKay MD Unique Marketing Solutions

"Peter enabled us to identify and focus on our key business goals and developed effective management strategies that have ensured we successfully met each one" Andrew Paterson Director Framework Osteopaths Ltd.

"Pete's challenges, support and diverse knowledge of leadership and management skills meant I was able to get past where I wanted to go more quickly than I thought possible. His ability to help you see your vision and go for it have helped me get to where I am today – if anything he helps you believe in what you are and focuses you on the right skills to achieve your goals" Philip Mellor MIH, Regional Operations Manager, Menzies Hotels Group

What Peter says...

"If you are serious about wanting to develop significant business outcomes, are ready to take effective action, and are prepared for the challenge then start now by meeting with me – it'll be the opportunity you've been waiting for."

Contact us to set up an initial meeting or simply to ask a question:
contactpete@notionltd.com